1. A king - dom is com - ing where all will be right:
2. The na - tions will fa - shion their swords in - to shears, p 3. In - stead) of the bri - ar the flow - er will grow; p 4. From least to the great - est we'll all know the Lord,

5

in - jus - tice and suf - fring will end. For God no long - er pre - par - ing for war. New plows the cyp - ress in - stead of the thorn. And so, and ev - er his peo - ple we'll be. The earth

10

will de - li - ver the poor and con - trite; the meek of the earth will be made from the last of the spears, and no one will fear liv - ing wa - ter for - ev - er will flow when all that was cursed will be filled with the know - ledge of God, like wat - ers that co -

15

he'll de - fend. Then Je - sus the Right - eous will speak an - y - more. The moun - tains will sing as we go is re - born. The beasts will not kill but be led ver the sea. And Je - sus will wipe ev - 'ry tear forth his word, and none of the wick - ed will stand. out with joy, while trees of the field clap their hands.

by a child. the wolves will lie down with the lamb.
from our eyes, as God makes his dwell - ing with man.

He'll an - swer our cries that we thought went un - heard, and all
And no one in Zi - on will hurt or de - stroy, for all The calf and the li - on will graze in the wild, for all Then death, pain, and ev - 'ry last sor - row will die, and all 30

will be peace in that land.
