1. Come, now re - mem - ber our sto - ry; how we were blind - ed by grace,
 2. Come, now re - mem - ber God's mer - cy; how we had noth - ing to give.
 3. Come, now re - mem - ber God's pow - er; how Je - sus rose from his grave!
 4. Come, now re - mem - ber God's pro - mise; how we shall en - ter his rest,
 5. Come, now re - mem - ber our call - ing. Striv - ing to - geth - er as one, stopped on the road of re - bel - lion; won by the sound of his voice.

 yet Je - sus gave us his gar - ments; clothed us and caused us to live.
 Come, hear the sound of his gos - pel; God's pow'r to those be - ing saved.
 how we are sealed with his Spir - it, called, chos - en, right - eous and blessed.
 hum - ble and lov - ing our neigh - bor, ho - ly, as daught - ers and sons.

13

May we re - mem - ber our bon - dage, once with no hope to be free.
 Then let us put a - way boast - ing. Christ's blood must scat - ter our pride.
 And though we share in his suff - 'ring, may we be ne - ver a - shamed.
 No con - demn - a - tion in Je - sus! No - one can pluck from God's hand.
 Love shows that we are di - sci - ples. Now let us go and make more.

17

Death was the wage we were earn - ing. Slaves, 'til he part - ed the sea.
 Once we were not the Lord's peop - le; now he has made us his bride.
 His strength made perfect in weak - ness. Our re - fuge found in his name.
 One day to see and be like him. On this as - sur - ance we stand.
 Christ, be the glo - ry of na - tions. Christ be for - ev - er a - dored.
