

In Bethlehem

1. Though the road was long, the time drew near, Heav-en's King on earth would soon ap -
2. Come be - hold the shep-herds, oft un - seen, cho - sen first to look though rough, un
3. You are worth - y, Je - sus, Lord of all, stoop-ing down to grace that cat - tle pear. Yet, no bed pre - pared; no wait-ing crown. Just a sta - ble near the edge of clean. 'Tis the Christ! Now peace on earth be - gins: He will save his peo - ple from their stall, You did not re - coil to meet us there, all our weak-ness, shame and grief to town. Here the Child was born so far from home to those hum - ble trav-'lers all a - sins. See our Might - y God has done great things! Hear the an - gel hosts his glor - ies share. So bring down the might - y from their seat; gent - ly lift the hum - ble to their lone. So they whisp-ered low their soft a - men on that lone - ly night in Beth - le - hem. sing! and re - peat the sound-ing joy a - gain on that ho - ly night in Beth - le - hem.

feet, that we all would at your man-ger bend to be - hold that sight in Beth - le - hem.
