

REDEMPTION HYMN

1. Once a god - less, hard - ened peo - ple with our dark - ened hearts,
2. Once a - lone we were as stran - gers with no friends to care,
3. Once we had no hope, no fu - ture; bit - ter days were spent,
4. Where You lead me, I will fol - low, ev - er press - ing on.

all our sens - es dulled and help - less, pierced by pleas - ure's pois'n - ing darts.
could not car - ry, could not bu - ry all the weight of our de - spair.
fear - ing dang - ers, pain and judg - ment, nev - er were our hearts con - tent.
Your own peo - ple are my peo - ple; You are God, my on - ly God.

But the Source of heav - en's bright - ness, hell - ish pow'rs de - stroyed,
But a - dopt - ed as Your child - ren, now we have a home,
But the Bride - groom, our Re - deem - er came up - on the scene, Trust - ing, I will work Your har - vest; I have un - der - stood, gave us life to know Your good - ness and Your ev - er - last - ing joys.

You will car - ry us for - ev - er, we will ne - ver be a - lone.
with His might - y strength and com - fort shel - ters us be - neath His wing.
You are caus - ing all to hap - pen for your glo - ry and my good.
